Ann Madden Tufano, Esquire

Madden & Tufano, LLC

As founding member and owner of Madden & Tufano, LLC, Ms. Madden Tufano is an experienced trial attorney who is dedicated to fighting hard for her clients. She advocates for justice and it is her passion and her calling to help others.

For over 20 years the attorneys at Madden & Tufano, LLC have been fighting for our clients. At our firm we understand that you have been injured, are in pain and that you will likely never be the same again. We understand that this not only affects you, but your family and loved ones; and that all you want to do is get back to the way you were before the injury. Some law firms view you as one of many clients and as a commodity, but not as a person with legal needs. Because we understand and appreciate all of this, we commit ourselves to your legal needs. We like making a difference in people's lives. In fact, our greatest complement is when existing clients refer us to their friends and family. We really stand by our motto: it truly is our family helping yours.
