Linda Toogood joined Columbia Bank in 1984 as a teller in their Voorhees branch; her son was born the same year. With true South Jersey grit and an eye for detail, Linda soon joined Columbia's mortgage lending division as an account executive. For more than a quarter century, Linda has applied her understanding of the mortgage industry to assist clients—from baby boomers to millennials and beyond—achieve the dream of homeownership. Linda prides herself on being constantly available.
