Lois Forman, MS

Jewish Family & Children's Service

An award-winning professional with 20+ years of experience in developing and nurturing client and community relationships, Lois has dedicated her career to serving individuals with disabilities and underserved populations. In her current roles as Job Bank Coordinator and Case Manager at Jewish Family & Children's Service, Lois assists clients with accessing resources for employment, food, housing and finances to ensure each client's needs are met and their goals achieved. Lois launched and maintains the Jewish Family & Children's Service online job bank for local businesses and job seekers, and has coordinated workshops for women in career transition and individuals with disabilities.

With a particular interest in brain injury, Lois has been a provider for the NJ Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services offering evaluations and job placement services to assist those with a desire to return to work. Lois has been recognized from the State of NJ for her contributions in the employment of people with disabilities and fostering growth through innovative programming. Lois has managed staff in brain injury programs in Southern and Central NJ, supervising employment specialists and job coaches across 5 counties, and provided in-service trainings, webinars and information sessions to rehabilitation professionals and school districts. Lois was inspirational in developing the Supported Employment Program at Jewish Family & Children's Service offering individualized assessments and supports for individuals with developmental disabilities.

Lois holds a Master's Degree from the Graduate School of Education at the University of Pennsylvania. In addition to being a member of the SJWIB, she is an active member of the Camden County Workforce Development Board, Gloucester County Workforce Development Board, Jewish Business Network and Disability Services Committee of JFCS.
