Natalie Illiano is an award winning journalist turn event planner. From politics to parties, she owns and operates Illiano Events, a decorating company that provides balloons, backdrops and dessert tables for life's most important events. She brings over two decades of event planning experience to her craft.

From baby, bridal to Bat Mitzvah parties, she leads a team of five decorators who help create over the top, lavish events. Beauty, luxury and ease is the company credo.

She also sits as Vice Chair and Treasurer of the newly formed, Voorhees Arts Commission created by Voorhees Township. The organization aims to enhance art and culture to the community and residents of Voorhees. It is her mission to better serve her community on the Arts Commission.

Her most important job is being a mom to her two children, John and Mila. Her goals include expanding her reach in public service, scaling her company and mentoring other women business owners so they can turn their dreams into reality.
